DHAKA HOSTS THE FIRST EVER “INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON NON-COMMUNICABLE DISEASES”

Between 26-28 January, UNFPA had the honour of co-hosting the first ever “International Conference on Non-communicable Diseases” at the Pan Pacific Sonargaon Hotel in Dhaka. The Director-General of the World Health Organization, Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus; the Honourable Health Minister of Bangladesh, Zahid Maleque and UNFPA Representative a.i, Dr. Eiko Narita, participated in the opening session of the conference.

READ MORE ABOUT THE CONFERENCE HERE

INDEPENDENT TV BROADCASTS A DISCUSSION ON THE STATE OF WOMEN’S HEALTH IN BANGLADESH

This month, Independent TV broadcasted a 2-hour discussion on women’s health and female leadership in Bangladesh. UNFPA experts Dr. Emdad Hoque and Dr. Rahat Ara Nur participated in the conversation alongside professors from the Obstetrical and Gynaecological Society of Bangladesh, former leader of the Directorate General of Health Services and other representatives of the local health sector.

WATCH THE WHOLE CONVERSATION HERE
JANUARY’S SUCCESS STORIES

SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH AND RIGHTS

UNFPA’S NEW JINGLE ENCOURAGES WOMEN AND GIRLS TO TAKE CARE OF THEIR SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH DURING COVID-19

FAMILY PLANNING WEEK 2021 RAISES AWARENESS OF CONTRACEPTIVE METHODS AMONG FAMILIES IN COX’S BAZAR

HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE

UNFPA HELPS ESTABLISH A DATABASE ON FAMILIES VULNERABLE TO NATURAL DISASTERS

UNFPA AND WFP HELP ESTABLISH A DATABASE OF OVER 100,000 FAMILIES VULNERABLE TO NATURAL DISASTERS IN BANGLADESH

UNFPA SUPPORTS THE EMERGENCY RESPONSE TO FIRES IN THE ROHINGYA CAMPS
JANUARY’S SUCCESS STORIES

POPULATION DYNAMICS

UNFPA employs a novel life-cycle approach to address population ageing in the Asia-Pacific region.

READ MORE

UNFPA promotes HIV self-testing among transgender communities on World AIDS Day.

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

UNFPA and Radio Shadhin host a dialogue to stand against rape in Bangladesh.

READ MORE

UNFPA Bangladesh